labor	production / system time $100 per hour ($25 minimum charge)
	Production labor includes design, typesetting, changes to supplied files, file conversions, electronic file submissions to manufacturers or publications, electronic proofs (pdfs) of supplied files to customer for approval, color correction or clean-up of scans, checking traps, manual trapping or imposition, etc. shipping / handling $5 per package Jobs that require packaging, scheduling and shipping via FedEx or UPS on your account will incur a shipping & handling charge. Our cut-off for shipping UPS or FedEx is 2:30 pm – if your turnaround is such that we cannot schedule a routine pickup, you will be charged an additional $5 to take the package(s) to the depot. Special packaging and/or International shipments will incur an additional charge. If we ship for you on our account, those charges will be passed through with no mark up.

- Complete, accurate instructions must accompany your file. We cannot be responsible for misunderstandings or delays caused by missing or incomplete information.
- We support files created in Adobe formats (InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop). If you submit native files, please include all supporting files, graphics and fonts. Please send high resolution pdf files, with fonts embedded, for all other software programs. We do not support native files created in Microsoft Word, Excel, Publisher or PowerPoint – please create a high resolution pdf if you are working in one of these programs.
- All prices are based on standard turnaround time. We are closed on major holidays and weekends, but we are willing to work with you if you have a deadline – please call to find out if someone will be available to help. Rush jobs and service on weekends, holidays and after regular business hours may be charged at 150%.
- Payment is due at time of service unless credit terms have been established. On established accounts, payment is due 30 days from the invoice date. Reminder statements are sent the 3rd of each month). We can accept credit cards, but we will charge the credit card fee to you in addition to your invoice amount (currently 2.9% to 3.4% + 25¢).
- Every attempt is made to make sure your files are correctly imaged. If Delta Graphics, Inc has made an error, we are responsible only for the cost of material replacement of film, plates or proofs. We are never responsible for printing costs or other losses incurred by incorrect or faulty materials, regardless of error. You should carefully inspect all materials when they are received and notify us within five working days if there is a problem with the output.
